TO THE CLERGY

OF THE

PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

The writer has been in the habit for several years past, of preparing for his own use, a programme, more or less like the one now offered. This is the first one he has ever printed, except an occasional programme of Lenten Services, mainly intended for congregational use.

The expediency and practicability of a previous arrangement of Themes and Texts for the Ecclesiastical Year, have been confirmed by the past experience of the writer However, notwithstanding a previous arrangement, as above named, he has often felt at liberty to depart from it, as circumstances have suggested.

The accompanying Programme is published mainly in accordance with the wishes of several clerical brethren, who have kindly intimated that it might be useful to the younger clergy;—useful, if not in the selection of Themes' Texts, &c., it might be so at least, in the Plan herewith submitted.

The writer, in conclusion, takes this opportunity of saying, that he is now preparing a Programme for the Ecclesiastical Year of 1856–7, with blanks for the Subject, Text,

Psalm and Hymn, which the clergyman can fill up for himself. There will, however, be an Appendix containing Subjects and Texts, taken mainly from the Lessons, Gospel and Epistle for the Day, together with suitable Psalms and Hymns. Due notice will be given of its publication.

Your Brother in Christ,

N. W. CAMP.
